

Date: 9/30/24

Track: 1

Time: 6:08 - 6:19

Good morning. Weather. Traffic. News Updates. Storm damage from hurricane Halleen has been awful in several states. Multiple fatalities, short on food, power, and supplies. Roads, bridges, and homes are gone. Hundreds of roads closed, 2mil people are left without power, and are unable to contact family members. Rain is still falling. Philly police found a woman partially clothed and unresponsive. Medics pronounced her dead on the scene, cause of death is still to be determined. Artificial Christmas trees may not be around because a worker strike is going on. Lack of trees this season can cause price spikes on other trees. 36 ports for shipping are closed. Sports. The eagles lost to Tampa last night, 33-16. Played horribly. They have a bye week next week. Aaron Nola was hit by a line drive last night. The Phillies beat the Nationals last night, they clinch home-field advantage going into the playoffs. Cody Clemmons with a great catch to end the game. Nitro Circus event tickets announced for WOTW. Guests for today. Good Money it today at 8 and 10.

Track: 2

Time: 6:32 - 7:05

Hard To Handle—Black Crowes. Traffic. SQ: What kind of wine accompanies Hanibal Lecter's liver and fava beans dinner? Birthdays Lacey Chabert 42. Kieran Culkin, 42. Angie Dickenson, 93. Fran Drescher 52. Jenna Elfman 53. Ezra Miller 32. Eric Stoltz 63. Barry Williams, 70. Casey's wife Dianne. SA: caller, Matt, correct, a nice chianti Entertainment news Chris Christopherson passed away Saturday at 88. He did it all and lived an incredible life. Actor, John Ashton passed away in his Colorado home at 76, there was no announced cause of death. Ronin Walker Cobain Hawk was born this weekend. Esme Agdal Paul was also born this weekend. Rebel Wilson officially got married. Johnny Depp is unlikely to return in films as captain Jack Sparrow, but he did visit a children's hospital dressed as him. Ellen announced that she has been struggling with osteoporosis, OCD/ADHD. Christian McCafferty purchased Stevie Nicks's property. Eliza dushku is pursuing a psychotherapy career. The internet is upset that Jacob Elordi was casted in the role of Weathering Heights. Tom Crise shocked the fans of a top gun orchestral event. Anna Delvey feels exploited for views on Dancing with the Stars. Yellowjackets added Hilary Swank as returning guest-star. The show earned 10 Emmy nominations in it's first two seasons. Whitney Cummings is announced as the host of the game show, Fast Friends. The Penguin series is available to stream, and DC Studios is working on new Batman shows as well. Clips Tonight, the voices blind auditions. Judge talks about the first time she heard her song on the radio. Norman Reedus talks about why zombies are the most popular monsters.

Track: 3

Time: 7:16 - 7:49

In The End—Linkin Park. Traffic. The US Navy has commissioned tier first co-ed submarine. It was a “historic moment” it will have male and female staff onboard. It is called the USS New Jersey named after the battleship. Only one of a certain gender in the workplace Kathy mentions when there were few women working in WMMR. She already knew the atmosphere because she grew up with brothers and male cousins. Kathy says it is easier to work with men than women because they’re “catty.” Callers call in with their own experiences. Callers talk about challenges / difficulties of women in the workplace, seen as incompetent/incapable at times. Some customers did not want to talk to caller. A male caller talks about being the only male in the teaching industry. Have to deal with gossip, but the kids loved him because he was the only male teacher. Caller who ended up slapping a co-worker because she was the only woman, but she says she still would choose to work with men over women. Another caller loves being the only woman in the staff. “you earn their trust if you take a dump in front of them” female callers frequently mention having to prove themselves to male co-workers. Kathy claims that Preston and Casey would not survive in an all-female world.

Track: 4

Time: 8:01 - 8:17

Interstate Love Song – Stone Temple Pilots. Good money it: compete Traffic. Bizarre Files: A video shows the moment human sewage covered a highway, roads, and people. Newly installed sewage pipes burst and splattered all over cars and pedestrians. Nobody was injured, but vehicles sustained damage. “I’m covered in poop.” A Lancaster couple are charged with child endangerment when guns, drugs, and a flamethrower in reach of their children. They’re already facing home-invasion charges. A woman refused to move her car to allow a tractor trailer to move into the grocery store he was making a delivery for. All she had to do was back up a bit, but instead threatened to call the police. The truck driver kept his composure the entire time. Other customers end up telling her to move too. In West Chester, a man drunkenly drove from a distance to pick up his friend from the bar. Acme Announcement: president of Acme, and director of communications and public affairs, promoting Camp-out for Hunger. The camp-out event is at Xfinity Live, starting December 2nd. People can contribute to the event when shopping at Acme, starting tomorrow. There are other charities that Acme promotes year-round. It is the most successful charity event they run. Lots of new items are coming out this year! Steve loves the uniformity of the various stores. Wear your eagles gear on game days, get 5% off $20 or more.

Track: 5

Time: 8:28 - 9:06

No Rain – Blind Melon. Weather. Traffic. Camp-Out for hunger pin-pad donations starts tomorrow at Acme. The Noticer: A video of a choir from Oakwood University (Alabama) shows the most impressive performance Preston has ever heard. They play the clip. “until we meet again.” The video is up on PNS.com How similar are the crew’s algorithms? “23 and Me's” stock is being de-listed. There have been lots of layoffs and admission of thinking about selling the company. This means everybody’s DNA who’s participated is also up for sale. This genetic data has been extremely helpful and useful for health info, crime info, research, etc. 23 and me requires a warrant for authorities to access genetic data. The military advised against sharing DNA with commercial DNA testers. Caller, Marie, says she was doner-conceived did ancestry.com. She found six siblings, then did 23 and me, and then found 33 siblings! A lot of the siblings look alike, and some have bonds. Would you want to find genetically-linked family members you’ve never met or known? More callers and texters mention their own experiences. Coolest neighborhoods in the world list of 2024. Criteria of food, nightlife, art, culture, etc. Number 5: Kerns, Portland Oregon. Coolest in the world: Notre Dame du Mont in Marseille, France. Morocco, Indonesia, South Korea, UK, Australia, Portugal, Brazil, Poland. Brewery town in Philly ranked 32. Due to fraud & theft, Target changed their return policies. They are denying returns on suspicions of theft.

Track: 6

Time: 9:19 - 9:44

Learning to Fly – Tom Petty. WOTW. Traffic. ACME – camp out for hunger. Just Sayin’ Institute. Body roundness index is gaining prominence in predicting somebody’s health risk. It is taking more into account than just height and weight. BRI can be useful, but checking internal health is most useful. The food pyramid has changed “they left out Doritos!” They check out the current chart. Calculation of your macros. For a quarter century, there has been an investigation of why people living in “blue zones” live longer. Actually, they don’t live longer, this is just bad data, says a researcher. Japanese study proves it. Injecting tiny grains of plastic into knee joint can assist arthritis pain. The procedure is very non-invasive. It alleviates pain, does not re-create the knee padding. It is a better alternative to cortisone, which is a temporary fix. 1 in 3 Americans admit they don’t get enough sleep, and set multiple alarms. This can be bad for sleep quality, according to experts. They say it makes it even harder to wake up in the morning. Casey sets multiple alarms, that stagger. They can trigger “fight or flight” hormones throughout the day. Hitting “snooze” is bad too.

Track: 7

Time: 9:56 - 10:09

I’m Alright – Mammoth WVH. Traffic. WOTW prize. ACME Good money it: Radio Bizarre Files: A NJ man’s Facebook post revealed a huge stash of weapons: many guns, knives, ninja stars, loads of ammunition, explosive devices, etc. He made a habit of posting his guns and other illegal items, as well as pointing guns at people. His 66 year old father was charged as well. A Bull-Moose got extremely close to a man. He recorded the video of the moose getting close to him, after it heard him in the area. The moose knocked him to the ground, then ran in the other direction, he was lucky to be alive. The pilot and passenger that landed on a highway were arrested for carrying cocaine. Good Money it: radio.

Track: 8

Time: 10:18 - 10:27

Drive—Incubus Weather. LQ: who does Anthony Hopkins dress up as to visit a children's hospital

Hollywood Trash Kanye sold his never lived in mansion. Jacob Elordi vacationed in the Italian coast. Christian cavitory split after 6 months of dating. LA: caller Marsia, correct

Hanibal Lecture. Music News Foo Fighters are on hiatus after cancelling their show appearance this weekend. Johnny Van Zant announced his daughter has a brain mass, they dont believe it to be cancerous. Wheezer is filling venues for their upcoming shows, and releasing 5 never heard before tracks. Marilyn Manson has a new studio album on the way. Chris Martin sang at a karaoke bar undercover.

Track: 9

Time: 10: 36 - 10:40

Picture Of You—U2. Thank you to our friends from ACME. Promotion of ACME's Camp-Out for hunger. Pin-pad program is underway. Jackie talks about his weekend. LOTD: D Jackie talks about what's due for his show next. Thank you sponsors, our guests tomorrow introduced.

Live Log:

Entertainment news (00:00:00) Chris Christopherson passed away Saturday at 88. Actor, John Ashton passed away in his Colorado home at 76, there was no announced cause of death. Ronin Walker Cobain Hawk was born this weekend. Esme Agdal Paul was also born this weekend. Rebel Wilson officially got married. Johnny Depp visited a children's hospital dressed as captain Jack Sparrow. Ellen announced that she has been struggling with osteoporosis, OCD/ADHD. Christian McCafferty purchased Stevie Nicks's property. Eliza dushku is pursuing a psychotherapy career. The internet is upset that Jacob Elordi was casted in the role of Weathering Heights. Tom Crise shocked the fans of a top gun orchestral event. Anna Delvey feels exploited for views on Dancing with the Stars. Yellowjackets added Hilary Swank as returning guest-star. The show earned 10 Emmy nominations in it's first two seasons. Whitney Cummings is announced as the host of the game show, Fast Friends. The Penguin series is available to stream, and DC Studios is working on new Batman shows as well. Judge talks about the first time she heard her song on the radio. Norman Reedus talks about why zombies are the most popular monsters. They play the clips.

Only one of a certain gender in the workplace (00:38:04) The US Navy has commissioned tier first co-ed submarine. It was a "historic moment" it will have male and female staff onboard. It is called the USS New Jersey named after the battleship. Callers call in with their own experiences of being the only male / female in the workplace of the opposite sex.

Bizarre Files (01:24:31) A video shows the moment human suage covered a highway, roads, and people. A Lancaster couple are charged with child endangerment when guns, drugs, and a flamethrower in reach of their children. A woman refused to move her car to allow a tractor trailer to move into the grocery store he was making a delivery for. In West Chester, a man drunkenly drove from a distance to pick up his friend from the bar

Acme Announcement (01:31:32) President of Acme, and director of communications and public affairs, promoting Camp-out for Hunger. The camp-out event is at Xfinity Live, starting December 2nd. People can contribute to the event when shopping at Acme, starting tomorrow.

The noticer (01:51:42) A video of a choir from Oakwood University (Alabama) shows the most impressive performance Preston has ever heard. "23 and Me's" stock is being de-listed. There have been lots of layoffs and admission of thinking about selling the company. This means everybody's DNA who's participated in sharing DNA is also up for sale. Coolest neighborhoods in the world list of 2024. Criteria of food, nightlife, art, culture, etc. Number 5: Kerns, Portland Oregon. Brewery town in Philly ranked 32. Due to fraud & theft, Target changed their return policies. They are denying returns on suspicions of theft.

Just Sayin' Institute (02:41:56) Body roundness index is gaining prominence in predicting somebody's health risk. For a quarter century, there has been an investigation of why people living in "blue zones" live longer. Actually, they don't live longer, this is just bad data, says a researcher. Injecting tiny grains of plastic into knee joint can assist arthritis pain. 1 in 3 Americans admit they don't get enough sleep, and set multiple alarms. This can be bad for sleep quality.

Bizarre Files (02:21:56) A NJ man's Facebook post revealed a huge stash of weapons: many guns, knives, ninja stars, loads of ammunition, explosive devices, etc. A Bull-Moose got extremely close to a man. He recorded the video of the moose getting close to him, after it heard him in the area. The moose knocked him to the ground, then ran in the other direction. The pilot and passenger that landed on a highway were arrested for carrying cocaine.

Hollywood Trash/Music News (03:38:16) Kanye sold his never lived in mansion. Jacob Elordi vacationed in the Italian coast. Christian Cavatry split after 6 months of dating. Foo Fighters are on hiatus after cancelling their show appearance this weekend. Johnny Van Zant announced his daughter has a brain mass, they don't believe it to be cancerous. Wheezer is filling venues for their upcoming shows, and releasing 5 never heard before tracks. Marilyn Manson has a new studio album on the way. Chris Martin sang at a karaoke bar undercover.

Wrap up (03:57:01) Thank you to our friends from ACME. Promotion of ACME's Camp-Out for hunger. Pin-pad program is underway. Jackie talks about his weekend and reveals the Letter of The Day. Rage on!

YouTube Log:

Entertainment news (0:00:00)

Only one of a certain gender in the workplace (0:38:04)

Bizarre Files (1:24:31)

Acme Announcement (1:31:32)

The noticer (1:51:42)

Just Sayin' Institute (2:41:56)

Bizarre Files (02:21:56)

Hollywood Trash/Music News (3:38:16)

Wrap up (3:57:01)